

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1912.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1903.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

CONSTANCY.

"Two years ago. The moon shone bright
And by her side, in fond delight,
Far from the world's distractions,
Blazing in youth's sweet foolishness,
Young Algernon, with deep-breathed sigh,
Forgetful though the hours might fly,
There where the ocean laved the sands
Sat holding hands.

The honeymoon long since has flown.
And Algernon, no wiser grown,
Sits where the gaslight blazes hot
And says, "I'll open that jackpot."
Unheeded still, the hours pass on.
Time is disclaimed by Algernon.
He sees, or calls, or pat he stands,
Still holding hands.

The statement in The Times-Star as to a falling off in the membership of the entire District of the M. E. Church is erroneous. Disastrous Race Yesterday Between the Olivet Bus Lines.

A race yesterday between the two Mt. Olivet Buses resulted disastrously for the outfit of Colonel Jim Rankins.

Mr. T. B. Trigg held the lines of his traia, while Mr. Rankins's son was manning the racers of the opposite line.

Whoa beyond Shannon Mr. Rankins attempted to pass Mr. Trigg's bus, with the result that his outfit toppled over, wrecking everything in sight but fortunately allowing the driver and passengers to escape without injury.

STOPPED ELOPERS.

Well Known Couple in Cincinnati Awaiting Parents' Consent.

After planning an elopement to Cincinnati, Miss Myrtle A. Gray, aged 20, of Millersburg, and John P. Auxier, aged also 20, late of this county, were refused a license at the Probate Court in Cincinnati yesterday.

Auxier met Miss Gray at Millersburg, where she resides and where he had been visiting for a few days. They hinted marriage to her parents, but met with a stern rebuff.

Miss Gray went Sunday to the home of W. B. Duchemin, a friend of the family, at Elmwood Place in Cincinnati.

When Duchemin learned it was her intention to marry, he told her she must get her parents' consent, which she asked in a letter.

When Auxier received the turnaround at the Courthouse in Cincinnati yesterday he wired for consent, and the couple returned to Elmwood Place to await answers.

Both young persons are well known in this city and county. Since last spring Mr. Auxier has been making his home near Rectorville, and Miss Gray spent the summer with relatives at Sardis and at Mt. Olivet.

UNIQUE RELIGIOUS SERVICE.

Rev. A. W. Mann at Church of the Nativity Last Night.

A religious service of special interest was held at the Church of Nativity, this city, last evening. It was what is called a "joint service." The deaf mutes of the city and neighborhood worshiped with the regular congregation and others. To enable them to have a share in the devotions, the Rev. Austin W. Mann acted as interpreter, using silent sign language, while the Rev. Dr. McCready read the parts orally. The sermon of the Rev. Mr. Mann was also read and interpreted. It was a brief history of two important movements of the nineteenth century, which led to the establishment of schools and missions for deaf mutes throughout the United States.

In this interesting and wide-reaching work of the Episcopal Church, the Rev. Mr. Mann has been engaged for more than thirty years. The following biography of him is taken from "Ohio Church Life," published at Cleveland:

"The Rev. A. W. Mann was born in Indiana in 1841. He is of Virginia ancestry. At five years of age, a malignant scarlet fever destroyed his hearing. He was educated at the Indiana institution at Indianapolis. After graduation he taught for several years at the Michigan institution near Detroit. In 1876 he gave up teaching in order to engage in building up deaf mute missions in the cities of the great middle West. In 1877, he was ordained to the Diaconate by the late Bishop Bedell of Ohio. It was the first ordination of a deaf mute West of the Alleghenies; and the second since Apostolic times. He was advanced to the Order of Priest at Philadelphia in 1883.

"In thirty years, the Rev. Mr. Mann has crossed his extensive 'Parish' of a dozen states more than 250 times, holding services in the deaf mute language at many Churches and state institutions. He has preached at many deaf mute conventions in the United States, Canada and England. He has also attended gatherings of educators of this class, the last of which was held at Glasgow, Scotland. He has brought hundreds of deaf mutes and their hearing children to baptism and confirmation and given away hundreds of prayer books, which are a great spiritual help and comfort to a class isolated from the worship and teaching of the voice.

"In the course of his travels abroad, the Rev. Mr. Mann visited a number of the great cities, among them Rome and Venice. On his return he gave many lectures in the sign language from the notes he took. He visited many of the leading art galleries and museums, among them the Louvre, Versailles, Luxembourg, the great British Museum and others of less note. He also visited a number of the noted Cathedrals of Great Britain and the Continent."

Mrs. L. V. Davis's Fall line of Millinery is now complete.

The state W. C. T. U. convention will be held at Lancaster October 2d.

Mrs. James Wells of the West End, who has been very ill, is improving.

Rev. C. F. Evans and family left on the morning train with the remains of his mother for Richmond, where the interment will take place.

The Rev. F. D. Palmer, the new Pastor of the M. E. Church, South, at Tollesboro, has moved his family from Owingsville to that place.

Yesterday afternoon the deed was lodged for record transferring the St. Charles Hotel property from Mr. S. R. Brooks and wife to Maysville Lodge No. 704, B. P. O. E.

There is more Cataract in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Cataract to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Cataract Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Miss Edith Berry has accepted a position with Mrs. O. B. Stitt and invites her friends to call when looking for the latest styles in millinery.

Mrs. L. V. Davis is now prepared for the fall trade with a choice line of Millinery, and confidently invites an inspection of correct styles.

Mr. E. H. Binzel, the clever L. and N. Agent in this city, will be transferred to Paris on November 1st. As this is quite a promotion, it softens the regret at the departure of this excellent gentleman and his family from Maysville.

DARE DEVIL DOROTHY.

Among the late song successes that will be heard in the new melo-dramatic musical comedy novelty, "Dare Devil Dorothy," are "Sammy" from "The Wizard of Oz," "Friends," "I'll be Bony All Next Week," "The Smilo Won't Come Off," "Lenora," Lew Dockstader's "It's the Dutch," "Under a Panama," "My Rosalie," and others. This is one of the good ones and you will miss an enjoyable evening if you miss "Dare Devil Dorothy" Thursday, September 24th.

The sale of seats opens Wednesday morning at Ray's Drugstore.

Dietress After Eating Cured.

Judge W. T. Holland of Greensburg, La., who is well and favorably known, says: "Two years ago I suffered greatly from indigestion. After eating great distress would invariably result, lasting for an hour or so and my nights were restless. I concluded to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it cured me entirely. Now my sleep is refreshing and digestion perfect." Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

CAPE MAY, N. J., September 17th, 1903.

I bowed into this once-famous Mecca of Southerners this p. m., to find that the recent Atlantic coast cyclone had not only wrecked several small vessels off-shore, but that it had blown down a number of magnificent shade-trees throughout the city—and had blown homeward most of the summer residents as well.

Tonight the thermometer is quoted at 54°, with a brisk Nor'easter wafting the salt air inland, and topcoats are not altogether uncomfortable—though somewhat "skase."

The Cape May of today is not the Cape May of ante-bellum days, when it was the favorite resort for the best and bluest blood of the Southern "chivalry," with an occasional visit from such conservative souls as HENRY CLAY. The War and the enforced withdrawal of its Southern clientele was a sad blow, and its greater distance from Philadelphia and New York drove the seashore of those places to Atlantic City and Long Branch, respectively. But now there's a change coming. A Pittsburgh syndicate is planning to reclaim the tide-possessed territory between the present Cape May and Sewell's Point, and a new Cape May will soon have a place on the map.

Recently the Reading Railway Company has entered the city, giving two direct lines to Philadelphia, with about eight trains each way daily, in addition to a splendid steamer ride each day during the summer months. So there'll be plenty of chance to get here—and to get away if you've money enough left after a week or two's stay.

But I'm not authorized to advertise the scheme of the Cape May Real Estate Company—it has several million dollars behind it, and will probably appropriate a part of the sum in that direction.

Among the most prominent residents here is ex-Senator CHARLES H. DOUGHERTY of Philadelphia, whose private "cottage" looms up three stories, contains over twenty rooms, and stands in the center of an entire square of forest growth.

To be the guest at such a home is well worth the long dusty ride from Maysville.

I'm too busy talking of auld lang syne to write more just now.

The Genuine vs. Counterfeits.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. E. Ledbetter of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Secret service agents have discovered two new counterfeit bills. One is a ten-dollar note on the People's National Bank of Roxbury, Mass., the other a five-dollar note on the Waltham National Bank of Waltham, Mass.

IT'S FOOLISH.

To Ignore Such Convincing Proof As This Maysville Citizen Gives You Here.

You may differ from your neighbors in many important questions of the day. Your opinions may coincide with those of the minority or those of the majority, and still you may be in doubt. But you can hardly be skeptical about the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills when you read such emphatic local endorsement as the following:

Mrs. J. B. Gibson of 113 West Fourth street says: "The value of Doan's Kidney Pills is quickly made manifest by their use. I obtained them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, and although my experience was not extensive it was because their curative powers were so quickly demonstrated that extended use was unnecessary. The quick relief from back-ache which was obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills caused me to recommend this valuable medicine whenever opportunity offers."

DELIGHTS FOR CHILDREN.

Features Designed For Their Pleasure and Instruction.

No institution provides so much instructive entertainment for the children as Barnum & Bailey's Greatest Show on Earth, for, with characteristic foresight, that enterprising firm recognizes the fact that what amuses and educates children has an equal attraction for parents and guardians. It so happens that among the thousand and one wonderful sights are scores upon scores of those which are really of benefit to the little folks. Special acts and features are secured for the avowed purpose of delighting children of all ages, and the smallest child will be sure to find some curious or elegant object within the big tents to amply repay the parents for the visit. Children's numbers are arranged on the program especially for this object and embrace sights and feats easily comprehended and understood by their youthful minds. Little elephants, tiny ponies, and other creatures are taught to execute tricks, similar to those read about in story books, and for the three hours they may possibly remain in the show, the children are really revelling in what their youthful fancies imagine is a veritable fairyland of wonders. Such attractions as the two menageries afford them an excellent idea of the beasts, birds and reptiles living in the world.

There are so many meritorious features that it would be hard to find anyone not satisfied; and Barnum & Bailey's Great Show is certainly the cheapest of all those in existence, for it gives so much for so little. The picturesque entertainment in the menagerie tent, where magicians, fire-kings, sword swallowers, expansionists, jugglers, musicians and others perform, convey more solid information than a whole library. All this and more will assuredly be here on Wednesday, October 7th, for an afternoon performance, when every child should see it. The tents are lighted by electricity, and contain a foot rest for every seat.

WOMEN AND FLOWERS

Former Asked to Furnish Latter For Kentucky Exhibit.

A BEAUTIFUL FLORAL DISPLAY.

Plant Culture to Form the Basis For One of the State's Most Attractive Installations at the World's Fair—Sowing New Kentucky Home Lawn in Blue Grass.

A display of Kentucky's products and resources minus the influence given it by the delicate hand of woman would be stripped of its originality and beauty. The Kentucky Exhibit Association, which is raising the money for Kentucky's representation at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition in St. Louis next year, has recognized this point and woman is to play her usual important role in the work. In furtherance of this idea Mr. H. Nanz, of Louisville, Chairman of the Department of Floriculture of the Association, has just issued an ap-

HENRY NANZ, Chairman Floricultural Committee, Kentucky Exhibit Association, appeal to the ladies and all flower lovers of the State of Kentucky to help him in making the floriculture display one that every Kentuckian will be proud of. In his letter, Mr. Nanz writes: "Knowing full well that a majority of flowers cultivated in Kentucky are done so by the ladies of our commonwealth, who as a rule have full charge of beautifying their respective homes and grounds, I am appealing to them to furnish us all plants, evergreens, shrubs, etc., of which they may be possessed and which they are willing to exhibit in the floral display to be arranged in the Horticultural Hall at the World's Fair."

"It is our desire and aim to make the floral department one of the most complete and unique in this hall. We must have the support of the Kentucky women with us in this project and any who have rare or odd-growing plants will confer a great favor by lending them to the Exhibit Association for the Exposition period. I will promise personally that the same will be well taken care of. Those who are interested will please correspond with me at the earliest possible moment, when information as to packing, shipping, etc., will be cheerfully furnished."

The work of Mr. Nanz in connection with the Kentucky Exhibit Association is not to end in the Horticultural Hall. He has kindly consented to take charge of the Kentucky State Building grounds and make them beautiful. Late this fall he will sow the lawn around the "New Kentucky Home" at the Exposition in blue grass and will transplant all the different Kentucky shrubbery that will flourish in Forest Park. Next spring large flower beds will be made on either side of the different Kentucky asphalt walks leading to the building.

WORLD'S FAIR NEWS NOTES.
Already 550 jars of fruit have been collected for Missouri's fruit display at the World's Fair.

Active construction operations have begun on the Pike at the World's Fair. The erection of the "Galveston Flood" and the "Irish Village" began recently.

Germany will make a complete medical exhibit at the World's Fair, including appliances, instruments, diagrams, etc., used in medical lectures.

A feature of Iowa's dairy exhibit at the World's Fair will be a statue in butter of John Stewart, the pioneer creamery man of that State. It will be life-size and will be kept frozen in a glass case throughout the Exposition.

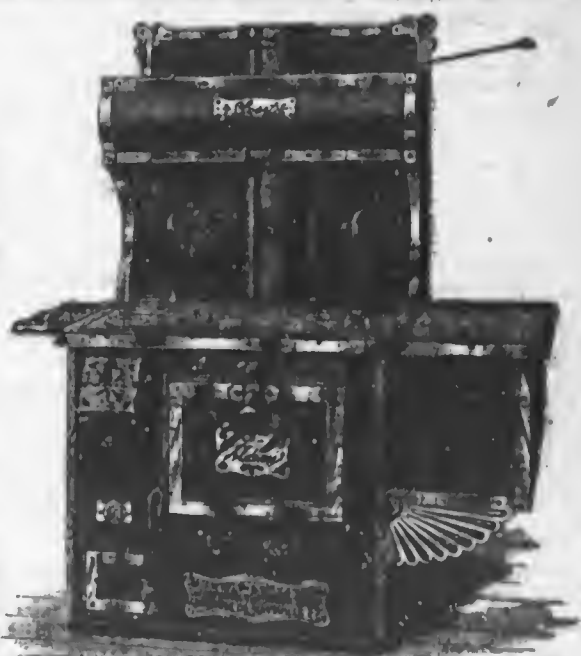

Gaining a Sale

Is of less importance than gaining a customer. That's one reason we stand back of everything we sell, even though it's a Hat; and we do sell Hats of the very latest style in John B. Stetson, National, Roloff and other well known makes. Brown is the new color for fall. Brims are fairly wide, though some are only 2 1/2". Hats occupy the highest place in our thoughts. They are on top, while the price is at the bottom for such Hats as we sell—$2, $3 and $4. See special window display of Hats Wednesday.

The diver dies without air to breathe. The consumptive dies without lungs to breathe the air, or of lungs rendered incapable of breathing by disease. The blood as it flows in and out of the lungs indicates the consumptive's progress. As the lungs grow weaker less oxygen is inhaled and the blood changes from scarlet to purple. Oxygen is the life of the blood as the blood is the life of the body.

The effect of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery upon weak lungs is to strengthen them, to enable the full oxygenation of the blood, arrest the progress of disease, and heal the inflamed tissues. Lung diseases have been and are being cured by "Golden Medical Discovery," in cases where deep-seated cough, frequent hemorrhage, emaciation, weakness, and night sweats have all pointed to a fatal termination by consumption.

"Some years ago I was almost a helpless victim of that dread disease—consumption," writes Mr. Chas. Pross, P. M., of Sitka, White Co., Ind. "I was confined to my room for several months; my friends and neighbors had given up all hope of my recovery, until one day a friend advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and after I had taken the contents of the second bottle I began to improve. After taking six bottles I was, I honestly believe, delivered from the grave and entirely cured. I am now a strong and hearty man."

EVENTS OF 50 YEARS AGO!

How Maysville "Celebrated" Half a Century Since.

Patriotic Participants, All Whom Have Long Gone to Join the Silent Majority.

In the days of our youth we live in the immediate present, but with "the sero and yellow loaf" of old age upon us we are reminiscent and live in the past. Retrospection is the solace of the aged man or woman. In the evening of life they find pleasure in meditation and reflection. Scenes and incidents of other days—when they were in the full flush of life and vigor—rise up before them like phantom dreams—to be sure, they are evanescent, but to memory how dear.

There are very few left who 53 years ago were middle aged and now with us, but of the number who were active in affairs of our city at that time, Uncle Bob Picklin will be best remembered from the fact that he was a "City Fireman" and Father of Neptune Fire Company No. 2.

In order that we of today may form an idea of how our forefathers celebrated over half a century ago, we reproduce an article taken from The Maysville Eagle of February 21, 1850:

THE GLORIOUS 22d—CELEBRATION OF THE DAY.

Friday last was a great day in this city. At an early hour in the morning the Fire Companies formed a procession and marched through the principal streets with their Engines and Hose Carriages beautifully and tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreen, and then visited East Maysville. Returning from thence, they marched to the Courthouse, where they were addressed in a most eloquent and beautiful speech by Elijah C. Phister, Esq. We had not the pleasure of hearing this speech, but have learned that it reflected the brightest honors upon the speaker, and proved highly gratifying to every one who heard it. After the speaking was over, the procession was reformed, and the German (Relief) Company, Captain J. Broese, directed the Neptunes to the "Goddard House," and then repaired to the City Hotel, where, at 12 o'clock, they sat down to a sumptuous dinner, prepared by Mr. French in his very best style; and we can bear witness that such justice was done to the many good things beneath which his table groaned.

About 2 o'clock the Neptunes and many of our citizens were seated at the extensive and luxurious table of "mine host" of the Goddard House, which was not only supplied with all the substantial and delicacies of this life, but with many articles altogether unusual, novel, and pleasant to the taste. Indeed, it seemed that Mrs. Richardson, that Princess of good land-ladies, had even exceeded herself in an effort to get up the best dinner ever prepared in this city on this occasion; and the general impression amongst her guests was that she had succeeded in accomplishing her undertaking. It was certainly one of the most excellent dinners our eyes ever beheld; and the estimate placed upon it by the company may be seen by reference to the card of the Engineer in another part of this paper. Proof positive as to the excellence of the repast may be had upon application to the Editor of The Eagle, with whom we had the pleasure of dining on the occasion.

In the afternoon the companies passed over the river to Aberdeen, where they were cordially and kindly received by the citizens, and welcomed to the Ohio shore by Mr. Underwood in a brief and eloquent speech, after which they returned and had a trial of the power of their respective engines at the crossing of Second and Sutton streets, which closed the exercises of the day. The music from the Covington Band was very fine.

It is but justice to both companies to say that they won golden opinions from our citizens and we say it with pride and pleasure that they conducted themselves with the strictest propriety throughout the day. No one could have failed to observe the great improvement which has taken place in these companies during the past few months; and we hope the City Council will now see the propriety of making ample provision for their benefit.

In addition to these performances, we saw two junior companies with small engines occasionally in the procession and they added not a little to the general hilarity and amusement which pervaded the crowds of spectators. "The Raging Tads" were also out in full dress parading the streets to the great amusement and wonder of our country friends who were present. The "Tads" are a droll looking set of fellows, but many of them have hearts as large as millstones concealed beneath their tattered garments.

We noticed that the "Art preservative of all Arts" was duly represented in the Neptune Company. The Eagle office furnished the drummer and the flag; the officer, besides some half dozen other printers were in procession from the different offices—of course, things would go on just right.

At night there was two splendid balls—the one at the Leo House, the other at the City

Hotel. We looked in a few moments upon each and saw the mirthful, gay and fascinating young ladies and their gallant beaux tripping "the light fantastic toe" with a grace, ease and elegance which was sufficient to captivate the most stoical old bachelor in all Christendom.

The German Ball at the City Hotel was one of the best ever had in the city and those who participated seemed to enjoy the sport with the most intense pleasure, but as we only remained a few moments we cannot say how it terminated.

The Citizens' Ball at the Leo House was well attended and we have never witnessed anything of the kind where more elegance, grace and beauty met the eye. The company was unusually brilliant, the music delightful, dancing exquisitely fine and everything connected with it seemed to have been arranged in very superior style. We did not stay to supper but we are told that it was the most splendid affair which has ever been witnessed in the city and reflected much credit upon Mr. and Mrs. Culbertson of that popular establishment. So ends the chapter.

A CARD.

Mr. Editor: I wish through the medium of your paper to return my heartfelt thanks to the citizens of Aberdeen heartily and also to the Neptune Fire Company of Maysville for the preservation of my house from fire on Thursday last.

SAMUEL CARPENTER.
Aberdeen, Ohio, February 23, 1850.

A CARD.

MAYSVILLE, February 22d, 1850.
Mr. Pike—Sir: Captain Taylor of the "Neptune Fire Company" left our city this evening in great haste. He had no time to organize his company in order that they, through him, might express their thanks to Mrs. Richardson of the Goddard House for the manner in which her most magnificent and sumptuous repast was served up for us. But his last wish to me was that I make a letter of this kind public, through your paper, tendering our sincere thanks, with the warmest desire that she may ever succeed in such well-doing.

Yours, &c.,
AZ. STEWART, 1st Eng.

By order of Captain Taylor.

At a meeting of the "Neptune Fire Company No. 2," held at their hall on the evening of the 23d of February, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the members of the Neptune Fire Company No. 2 tender their sincere thanks to Elijah C. Phister, Esq., for his eloquent and appropriate address delivered in our behalf on the 22d of February, 1850.

Resolved, That we truly appreciate the resolutions from the borough of Aberdeen, and trust they will ever confide in our motto: "We fly to save!"

Resolved, That the "Neptune boys" look forward with pleasure to the day when that beautiful banner, which we understand the ladies intend presenting, will be forthcoming.

Resolved, That we return our thanks to the citizens of Maysville for their magnanimous generosity, which they displayed for our present pleasure and their future good.

Resolved, That the citizens of Aberdeen are entitled to our warmest gratitude and will ever be remembered by the No. 2's for the cordial reception bestowed, through Mr. J. M. Underwood, Esq., upon us.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be published in the city papers.

ODDFELLOWS HALL,

ABERDEEN, O., February 21, 1850.

At a regular meeting of Charter Oak Lodge, No. 137, of the I. O. O. F. the following resolutions were offered by Bro. Thomas Sharpe, and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we feel a deep sense of gratitude to the citizens of Aberdeen generally, and also to the Neptune Fire Company of Maysville, Ky., for their prompt and ready assistance in extinguishing the fire this morning, which, for a time, threatened the total destruction of our new and splendid hall.

Be it further Resolved, That Bros. John B. McCaffa and Martin Smith be appointed a Committee to wait on Capt. Henry Cox of the Neptune Fire Company and tender to him and through him to each member of said company, our most grateful thanks for the prompt and expeditious manner in which they got out their engine, crossed the river, and came to our assistance.

Resolved, That the three Maysville city papers be requested to publish the above.

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given to young children it becomes more effective, and even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substances and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

His Life Saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I, L. Ryer, a well known cooper of this town, say he believes Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life last summer. He had been sick for a month with what the doctors call bilious dysentery, and could get nothing to do him any good until he tried this remedy. It gave him immediate relief," says H. T. If you ever took Dr. Williams' Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what a purgative pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not gripe, sicken or weaken, but give tone and strength to the tissues and organs involved. W. H. Howell of Houston, Tex., says: "No better pill can be used than Little Early Risers for constipation, sick headache, etc." Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

The Republican campaign hand-book has been issued.

At Lexington, Frank Johnson, aged 24, after a quarrel with his sweetheart, committed suicide by taking poison.

A committee from the Kentucky Burley Tobacco Association went to New York to see James B. Duke, President of the Continental Tobacco Company, and made a proposition to Duke to take their contracts at eight and a half cents of an increase. The proposition was declined, and it is probable that an independent warehouse will be established at Lexington.

MISS MANNIE BARBEE.

Miss Barbree appeared for the second time last night in Maysville, and to a larger audience and one even more delighted. It has been a question what to call her original and characteristic entertainment. It is not the proverbial recitation, which for one we pronounce a bore; nor is it the reading of a professional actress. She does not act. There is not a motion of artificiality in her presentations before us. She simply talks to us as in her parlor and brings before us one by one Mrs. Trimble and the widow Doodles, Tillie and Mattie and Uncle Simon. She reminds us more than anything else of Joe Jefferson. You may be a little disappointed, as with him, at first. It is the mark of all great art that we do not take it all in at once. We never take nature completely in. Miss Barbree's characters are cut out of the living strata, and live and walk before us with the perpetual surprises of real people. She is simply like Proctor Knott—a perfect raconteur come at last, like him, to the knowledge of the larger public.

"GOOD IN PLACES."

What a Chicago "Literary" Woman Thinks of the Bible.

A new woman had just moved into the neighborhood. She was of the distinct literary type and books were her hobby, says The Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Her neighbors called. One of them in particular seemed to desire to make an impression. She professed an enthusiasm for new books and borrowed several. The books were returned in a few days, but always without comment as to their contents, very much to the disappointment of the lender.

Book after book was borrowed and returned with the same result. Finally, after two or three weeks, when the ambitious neighbor called again, a new, morocco-bound Bible was lying on the parlor stand. The neighbor picked it up and glanced through it.

"I believe I'd like this," was the remark, the same as usual.

"Well, take it," said the new neighbor, "and when you have finished it, let me know how you like it," she added, with the slightest twinkle in her eye and a shade of suspicion in her voice.

The borrower hesitated for a moment, took the book and was gone with it for over a week.

Finally she returned with it, laid it where she had found it, and thanking her obliging friend, started to go without another word.

"Well, how did you like it?" called the book lover after the other's retreating figure.

"Oh, I don't know," was returned, "its good in places. But he does finally get her in the end, don't he?"

The book lover is still dazed.

CAUTION!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how valuable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1808 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its popularity all these years, you will be thankful that we called your attention to Koech's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 2½ size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. At Henry W. Ray's, next door to Postoffice.

As You Like It

That is about the way The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York issues policies in these days of varied requirements in business and family life.

The postscript to a letter written by Mr. Ebe Walter, of Clarksville, Del., enforces this thought:

"The notion of the dividend addition of 1907, making my policy $1,245, or a total cash value of $1,071.10 are fully appreciated, but the settlement which I have chosen seems to be the best suited to my present circumstances."

What Mr. Walter did take was a dividend check for $196.98 on the paid-up policy of a $1,000, which cost him all told $448.02. He says:

The feature which I particularly like about my policy is that the longer I live the more I get and that during the balance of my life there is nothing more for me to pay.

In writing for terms for a policy of this kind, state what you would like to receive in cash at the end of limited payment period, amount you would like your beneficiary to receive in event of your death, and give your age.
